Dedication

For long and faithful service both as teachers and administrators; for beneficial, cultural impact upon the hundreds of students who have passed through Holgate School and on into adult life; for instilling into young minds principles of rectitude and good citizenship, and for their continued interest in the progress and development of the school since their severance of immediate relations with it, we, the Class of 1952, dedicate this yearbook to Miss Muriel Tripp and Mr. M. E. Brandon.

A life well lived can never die,
Its mark, it leaves on "sands of time,"
And tho the mortal form decay,
The life in truth lives on sublime.

HOLGATE HIGH SCHOOL

The year 1910 proved to be a dividing date in the history of Holgate High School. During this year, we were presented with a certificate showing that we had met all the requirements set up by the state and that we were entitled to advance to a place among the accredited High Schools of Ohio. Twelve classes had graduated before 1910. The first class, 1894, with only three members, was very happy in its attainment. The largest class, 1939, claimed the all high of thirty-six members. The total number of graduates will soon be crowding near the one-thousand mark. The class of only three could do very little alone. The same was true of the largest class, but when we called upon the thousand to support our school projects, we found that we could go places, as was seen in our bond proposal of 1951. The sacrifices necessary to create and maintain a first class High School have paid off in a big way. With so fine an example in the past, we are inspired to push ahead into the future. It would be interesting to study the accomplishments of each individual who has gone out from Holgate High. We would find representatives in high professional places and in all economic fields. They are scattered across our land from sea to sea. Now a goodly number are across in foreign lands trying to save for the boys and girls of America the advantages and privileges which they enjoyed back in Holgate High. At one time (1894-1912) our high school was comfortably located in what is now the fifth grade room. There were two teachers. Classes were conducted in the assembly and in one small classroom. You may realize that both pupils and teachers were kept busy. Each pupil was made responsible for himself. This self discipline was the most valuable requirement of his day's program. Charles Wilson, W. H. Richardson, and H. S. Armstrong were in charge of the school during this period.

In 1912, we were obliged to enlarge our working quarters in order to take care of the growing enrollment and to meet the increasing demands of the State. The assembly included the sixth grade room and what is now the hallway. The faculty was increased by two teachers. We were quite happy with two new classrooms. The seventh and eighth grades were seated in the assembly. They were under the care of Ralph Clark. Our football eleven was really an asset to the school. Despite the fact that there was no coach and that their equipment; suits, balls, and shoulder pads were "hand-me-downs," they brought back to us many a victory. We were very proud of our standing in North Western Ohio athletics. The progress of the school was in the hands of Superintendents H. S. Armstrong, H. Teal, W. Ellsworth, and M. E. Brandon. Mr. Beeson and Mr. Hutchinson were here for short periods about this time.

In 1921, we tore up the place pretty badly. We rearranged the stairways, tore out and put in partitions. Rooms for new departments of Agriculture and Home Economics were added. The science rooms were given more space because the students were taking a new interest in this kind of work. Most of the second floor of the new part became the assembly as it is today. I don't need to tell you that the Superintendent's office was moved in right next door. Handy, you say? The library was dignified by giving it a room of its own. A few shelves placed along the west wall of the present typing room gave us more room than books. It was not long until we were able to establish the School-State library. This is as you have it today, we were very proud of it. For a small school there is no better. One of the most obvious changes has been our progress in music. What we hear today puts our efforts of about 1921 to shame. Our choral work of this earlier period was indeed voluminous, but it came from the heart and we liked it. We next tried a sort of "circuit-rider music teacher." He came to Holgate two days a week. This was better. The boost given our interest in music has never left us. We are still going strong. Our band and choral clubs are a delight to us when we are permitted to hear them at community gatherings. Through the years, we have taken our full share of the honors offered in the different district contests. Are you ready for the next one? We have always offered Commercial Arithmetic and Book-keeping in our curriculum. Our course has been greatly broadened and today a student can go directly from our commercial department into a very good position at a very satisfactory salary. The report reports of their continued success is very gratifying. Our representatives in the yearly contests have won much honor for themselves--then in turn, for the school. M. E. Brandon, B. M. Rutter, and J. C. Rudolph were the men who helped us realize the good that resulted from this advancement.

The next period in our history was most far-reaching. It affected all equally--high school and grades alike. The new wing built to the south, housed a well equipped sewing room, a new Home Economics room with kitchen facilities that now serve our very popular cafeteria. An average of four hundred lunches is served each day. Here also may have been found the new Agriculture room with its correlated shops, which soon spread its influence out into the surrounding farm areas of our school district. The Gym-Auditorium was the answer to the prayers of everyone. It has become the meeting place of all organizations, whether church, business, or school. Here even the smallest children can enjoy scheduled play periods under the direction of the teacher. There was no intended disrespect to the old "City Hall" when we turned from its creaking stairs, its swaying floor, its bulging walls with so little reluctance. The glassless windows that admitted the cold blasts into the "Personae" of our theatrical efforts did their strutting. Do you have the answer to these two questions?

Why are the school plays better today?

Why has our basket-ball team won state recognition?

If one listens, he will soon realize that the music room was placed just back and across the hall from the Gym. To an untrained ear, mere noise (plenty of it) seems to issue from this room. Later, however, when we hear the finished product, we know what has been going on behind the closed (thanks) doors of this practice quarters. Go Ahead! Make more noise, we are sure that the result will be equally pleasing. The second floor of this new wing was set aside as laboratories, with necessary storage space. In our crowded condition, regular classes have been meeting here also. Mr. Brandon and Mr. Rudolph piloted us through this season of expansion.

Just this Fall we invited the public in to help dedicate our latest addition. The crowd was very enthusiastic for they were looking at the results of their own cooperation and sacrifice. The money required for this improvement had been raised and the plan completed before Mr. Rudolph resigned. Mr. Gisler took over and very ably carried the building to its completion. The change in our economic life makes it necessary for the school to move along to keep abreast of the times. We have therefore introduced a new type of training for those who intend to enter industrial fields. This challenge is being carried on in our vocational classes under the direction of Bob Cole.

CLASS HISTORY

In September, the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and forty, dragged and coaxed by our parents, we entered the First Grade. We studied hard and finally after six years (in most cases) we happily entered the Seventh Grade. Mr. Miller, the coach and History teacher, became our class advisor. During our two years in Junior High we learned many new things, including the different forms of punishment for the nastier students. As we entered our Freshman year, Mr. Rudolph, our superintendent, left us and Mr. Gisler, our former principal, took over the vacated spot. In our Sophomore year we held a few bake sales, a turkey raffle, and tried a couple of old swindles. Some of the class took part in the one-act plays. Mr. Miller moved away, and at the beginning of our Junior year Mr. Smalley became our advisor. During the year we held numerous bake sales and raffles. The first of November our class rings arrived and we paraded around showing them off. As the Junior year drew to a close we presented our class play, "Half Past Ten" which was well received despite the fact nobody was there. Then we gave the Seniors a big send off, entertaining them at the Junior-Senior banquet. The Senior year was a busy year for the Annual and Tatler staffs. On November second an all star cast gave our class play, "The Adorable Imp." We had our class pictures taken and spent much time admiring ourselves. In May we shall be looking forward to graduation and to our class trip.

Will

We, The Class of 1952, in the city of Holgate, County of Henry, State of Ohio, the United States of America, the Continent of North America, the Western Hemisphere, being in as excellent mental condition as usual, in hilarious temper, and in sound physical structure, do hereby proclaim this our last will and testament, rendering null and void any previous will or wills that may have been made by us during a period of mental relapse.

I, Violet Mary Barth, do will and bequeath my chair in Glee Club to any stoop who can make less noise, fewer mistakes and can bother Mr. Holm less than I did.

I, James Bortz, do will and bequeath my seat in the study hall to Leonora Schuller so that when she becomes a Senior she may carve her name under mine.

I, Janet Brink, do will and bequeath my driving ability to Donna Hohenberger, may she drive as well as I.

I, Marietta Brown, do will and bequeath my position on the Tatler staff to anyone who is fool enough to take it.

I, Thomas Dale, do will and bequeath my own private seat by the radiator to anyone who wants to fight over it.

I, Lila Edgar, do will and bequeath my seat in the study hall to anyone who can talk more than I.

I, Robert Eis, do will and bequeath my old shoes to the poor school teachers, may they get more kicks out of them than I did.

I, Jacqueline Eitzman, do will and bequeath my typing skill to anyone who can make fewer errors than I.

I, Herb Hipp, being of weak mind and sound body, do will and bequeath my ability as a scholar to Dan Baringer, may he use it to better advantage than I.

I, Jo Ann Klear, do will and bequeath my seat in the study hall to Janet Brown, may she study in it more than I.

I, Norbert Klear, do will and bequeath my typing ability to Craig Frost, may he be a greater success than I.

I, James Knapp, do will and bequeath my height and also my draft card to Dan Baringer, may Uncle Sam request his presence sooner than mine.

I, Dolores Koenig, do will and bequeath my position on the Tatler to any religious person well instructed in the English language, may she get her news in on time as I always did not.

I, Robert Moore, do will and bequeath one foot of my shortness to "Midge" Dietrick, may he use it to better advantage than what I could.

I, Donald Romes, do will and bequeath the gum I stuck under my desk to anyone strong enough to pull it off.

I, Lou Ann Romes, do will and bequeath my typewriter to Patty Thome, may she break it as easily as I did.

I, Maxine Rudy, do will and bequeath my ability to borrow money to whoever can be less successful than I in paying it back.

I, Betty Louise Schwab, do will and bequeath my ability to run into Mr. Cole on the stairs to Donna Hohenberger, may she have as much fun as I did.

I, Kay Frances Snyder, do will and bequeath my interest in the New York Giants and the Cleveland Indians to Nancy Grim, may she bring them continued success.

I, John Theisen, do will and bequeath my seat in the study hall to any person who is lucky enough to get it.

I, Gale Wolf, do will and bequeath my ability to receive letters in Democracy class to Larry Hipp, may he receive more of them than I did.
